

The Dynamics of Devolution in Wales – Initial Findings from the ESRC Devolution Programme

Saturday 15 March 2003, Aberdare Hall, Corbett Road, Cathays Park, Cardiff

09.00 Coffee and Registration

09.30 Session One: Identity

- Roger Scully (Aberystwyth) ‘Public Opinion, National Identity and Devolution’
- Duncan Tanner (Bangor) ‘Welsh Identity and Welsh Devolution before 1979’

11.00 Break

11.30 Session Two: Constitutional Arrangements I

- Paul Chaney (Aberystwyth) ‘Women and Constitutional Change in Wales’
- Richard Parry (Edinburgh) ‘Devolution, Wales and the Home Civil Service’
- John Osmond (Institute of Welsh Affairs) ‘The Richard Commission’

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Session Three: Constitutional Arrangements II

- 14.00 Jonathan Bradbury (Swansea) ‘AMs and MPs: Representation in Wales’
- Rick Rawlings (LSE) ‘Wales and Westminster’
- Martin Burch (Manchester) ‘Wales and Europe’

15.30 Break

16.00 Session Four: Public Policy

- John Loughlin (Cardiff) ‘Devolution and Public Policy: Dynamics of Policy Divergence’ (N.B. John to confirm)
- Phil Cooke (Cardiff) ‘Funding Economic Development in Wales’
- Mark Goodwin (Aberystwyth) ‘Towards a Welsh Model of Economic Development’
- Nick Phelps (Cardiff) ‘Business Organisation in Wales’

17:00 Reception